

Book Report Form Directions

FORM

DIRECTIONS

Book title

Underline it.

Author

State the first and last name or the initials of the author.

Other books the author has written

List the titles of the author's other books suggested in the opening pages of this one.

Characters

Use complete sentences and always state the character's name and two words to describe the character's personality.

Protagonist: chief character on whom our interest centers; hero/heroine

Antagonist: opponent of the protagonist; character(s) pitted against the hero/heroine; villain

Others: some of the other significant characters

Setting(s)

State where the story takes place for two different categories.

Overall story: general locale, historical time, social circumstances

Specific scenes: physical location

Description

Describe that images that come to your mind when picturing of one of the specific scene settings.

FORM

Plot Outline

Exposition

Rising Action

Climax

Falling Action

Resolution

Theme is

Theme is important because

Themes of this novel are

Symbolism is

Symbols are important because

Symbols in this novel include

Characterization is

Characterization is important because

Love 'em or hate 'em

DIRECTIONS

Write: Events and actions ordered toward an ultimate end

Tell what initiates the main action of the story.

Describe the struggle between characters or ideas.

Explain how the conflict develops.

Tell about the height of action or ideas.

Explain how the conflict diminishes.

State the outcome of the plot.

Write: Theme is the message of the story.

Write: It's important because it makes the story meaningful and more than just a story.

State the themes of the story.

Write: It's the use of something that represents or stands for something else, as resemblance or association.

Write: They aid in the understanding of the story.

List the symbols and their significance in the story.

Write: It's establishing the differences among the characters.

Write: It helps in the development of theme and plot.

Explain why you love or hate a specific character.

Your thoughts

In a well-organized paragraph explain what you liked or disliked about this book.