ATTENTION: ALL VOLUNTEERS

Galileo Health Academy is looking for a volunteer to spend a few hours a day for four to five days a month to produce a monthly newsletter. By working with multiple community partners, the Galileo Health Academy provides students with a high quality science education focused on health careers. We are in need of a way to communicate our successes with our partners and fiscal sponsors. If you have any desktop publishing skills and a desire to help educate our youth, we can certainly use your help. For more information on the Galileo Health Academy, visit the link below:
